DECLARATION OF JOHN J. ATALLAH IN SUPPORT OF
DEFENDANT CORELOGIC RENTAL PROPERTY SOLUTIONS, LLC'S
MOTION FOR A PROTECTIVE ORDER

DECLARATION OF JOHN J. ATALLAH

I, John J. Atallah, declare as follows:

1. I am an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of California and before this Court. I am an associate with the law firm of Foley & Lardner LLP, which is counsel of record for Defendant CoreLogic Rental Property Solutions, LLC ("CoreLogic") in this action. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth in this declaration and, if called as a witness, could and would testify truthfully and competently thereto.

2. I submit this Declaration in support of CoreLogic's Motion for a Protective Order.

3. On March 13 and 22, 2019, Plaintiff served Notices of Deposition for CoreLogic witnesses Robert Winkler, Angela Barnard, Naeem Kayani, Idrees Muhammad, Manny Cuevas, and Yianni Pantis. True and correct copies of these Notices of Deposition are attached hereto as Exhibits A and B.

4. CoreLogic produced Robert Winkler for deposition on March 13, 2019, Angela Barnard on March 14, 2019, and Manny Cuevas on March 15, 2019.

5. On March 19, 2019, my colleague Christi Lawson and I participated with CoreLogic's counsel Ian Lyngklip and Sylvia Bolos in a telephonic meet and confer wherein Attorney Lawson and I indicated to Attorneys Lyngklip and Bolos that CoreLogic objected to producing its in-house legal counsel, Yianni Pantis, for deposition, on the grounds that Mr. Pantis serves the company only in his legal capacity and does not have any non-privileged information that would be relevant to Plaintiff's claims.

6. During the meet and confer call, Attorneys Lyngklip and Bolos provided no legal justification for disregarding CoreLogic's attorney-client privilege related to the legal advice it receives from its counsel, and advised that they would email CoreLogic's counsel no later than the following Wednesday, March 27, to indicate whether Plaintiff intended to move forward with the deposition of Mr. Pantis.

7. On March 27, 2019, CoreLogic served written objections to Plaintiff's deposition notices, detailing CoreLogic's objections to Plaintiff's request to depose Yianni Pantis based upon its attorney-client privilege. A true and correct copy of the Objection to Deposition Notice is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

8. On March 27, 2019, I additionally emailed Attorneys Lyngklip and Bolos to indicate (consistent with our prior representations) that CoreLogic would make Idrees Muhammad available for deposition on April 5, 2019.

9. Attorneys Lyngklip and Bolos did not respond to me or my colleagues on the promised date of March 27 to indicate whether or not Plaintiff intended to move forward with the deposition of Mr. Pantis.

10. CoreLogic produced Naeem Kayani for deposition on March 29, 2019.

11. On April 1, 2019, following CoreLogic's extensive efforts to schedule Idrees Muhammad's deposition, Plaintiff issued a notice of withdrawal of Mr. Muhammad's deposition notice without providing any further explanation.

12. On April 1 and 3, 2019, I emailed Attorney Bolos once again to ask whether Plaintiff also intended to withdraw the deposition notice as to Yianni Pantis. A true and correct copy of those emails is attached hereto as Exhibits D and E. Attorney Bolos did not respond to either of my emails.

13. On April 8, 2019, Attorney Bolos emailed me stating: “[W]e’d like to meet & confer regarding the noticed deposition. We’ve been asked repeatedly to withdraw that deposition notice, and we’d like to discuss it further.” A true and correct copy of that email is attached hereto as Exhibit F.

14. Attorney Lawson and I thereafter agreed with Attorneys Lyngklip and Bolos to convene a conference call at 2:30 PM Eastern on Wednesday, April 10, and Attorney Bolos circulated dial-in information for their conference line. A true and correct copy of that email is attached hereto as Exhibit G.

15. On April 10, at the agreed-upon time, Attorney Lawson and I separately dialed in to the conference line from separate locations, and each of us was greeted with a recorded message that the phone number had changed. Attorney Lawson and I each dialed the new number repeatedly, over the course of several minutes, only to receive busy signals. Attorney Lawson immediately emailed Attorneys Bolos and Lyngklip to indicate there was a problem with the conference line. A true and correct copy of Attorney Lawson’s email is attached hereto as Exhibit H.

16. Attorney Bolos responded an hour later, taking issue with our supposed failure to dial into the conference line, and stating: “I intend to re-notice [the Yianni Pantis] deposition for April 22, 2019 if I haven’t heard back from you with alternative dates by the end of the week.” A true and correct copy of that email is attached hereto as Exhibit I.

17. CoreLogic took the deposition of Plaintiff Randy Cleary on January 30, 2019. A true and correct copy of relevant excerpts from the transcript of Mr. Cleary's deposition is attached hereto as Exhibit J.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed this 18th day of April 2019 at Los Angeles, California.

DEFENDANT CORELOGIC RENTAL PROPERTY SOLUTIONS, LLC’S OBJECTIONS TO PLAINTIFF’S NOTICES OF DEPOSITION

Pursuant to Rules 26 and 30 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Defendant CoreLogic Rental Property Solutions, LLC (“CoreLogic”), by and through its counsel of record, hereby objects to Plaintiff Randy Cleary’s (“Plaintiff”) Notices of Deposition of Naeem Kayani, Idrees Muhammad, Yianni Pantis, Angela Barnard, and Manny Cuevas served by Plaintiff via email on March 13 and March 22, 2019 (the “Deposition Notices”).

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

The following general objections are made to the Deposition Notices in their entirety. Each of the objections is hereby incorporated by reference into the Statement of Objections set forth below.

A. CoreLogic objects to the Deposition Notices on the grounds that Plaintiff's attempt to depose multiple CoreLogic employees, two of whom were not designated by CoreLogic as trial witnesses, on an impermissibly broad and irrelevant subject matter, far exceeds the scope of permissible discovery under Rule 26 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. To date, the vast bulk of Plaintiff's examination of CoreLogic witnesses in deposition has sought information with no bearing whatsoever on Plaintiff's claims, nor has it been calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Indeed, Plaintiff's questioning has been wholly irrelevant to the disposition of this case.

B. CoreLogic objects to the Deposition Notices on the grounds that they seek confidential and proprietary information, as well as information that is protected from disclosure by third-party rights to privacy and/or is required by law, custom, contract, or other reason to be maintained as confidential.

C. CoreLogic objects to the Deposition Notices on the grounds that they are overbroad and impose an undue burden on CoreLogic.

D. CoreLogic objects to the extent the Deposition Notices seek testimony protected by the attorney-client privileged and/or attorney work product doctrine.

E. CoreLogic reserves the right to assert additional objections before, during, and after any deposition that may later proceed in connection with the Deposition Notices.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS

Plaintiff wishes to depose individuals who have no personal knowledge of this matter on issues that are not relevant to Plaintiff's claims, and these depositions are entirely disproportionate to Plaintiff's needs for this case. Plaintiff continues to pursue his fishing expedition, and the cost and burden of discovery of has far surpassed any possible liability in this matter, which CoreLogic believes to be none.

Under the Federal Rules, Plaintiff is only entitled to discovery regarding any non-privileged matter that is relevant to any party's claim or defense and proportional to the needs of the case. Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1). One of the factors to be considered is "whether the burden or expense of the proposed discovery outweighs its likely benefit." Id. Plaintiff's Notices of Deposition seek irrelevant, and to a significant extent privileged, information. CoreLogic therefore objects to the extent Plaintiff continues to seek irrelevant information through the depositions of several CoreLogic employees.

Pursuant to the Deposition Notices, and preserving all objections, CoreLogic produced Manny Cuevas for deposition on the March 15, 2019. Plaintiff's counsel closed Mr. Cuevas' deposition after an hour of testimony and now seeks to depose Idrees Muhammad, whom CoreLogic has not designated as a trial witness, on the very same subject matter on which Mr. Cuevas testified. Plaintiff additionally seeks to depose Naeem Kayani on an unknown selection of topics that likely have no bearing whatsoever on Plaintiff's claims.

CoreLogic additionally objects to Plaintiff's attempt to notice the deposition of Yianni Pantis, who is CoreLogic's in-house legal counsel. Plaintiff's request to depose Mr. Pantis is unduly burdensome and prejudicial. Mr. Pantis is legal counsel for CoreLogic and serves only in his legal capacity. Like the other named deponents, Mr. Pantis has no personal knowledge regarding Plaintiff's claims. As counsel for CoreLogic has explained to Plaintiff's counsel in extended meet and confer communications, any involvement Mr. Pantis may have had in matters potentially relevant to the subject matter of this lawsuit would be entirely privileged. Mr. Pantis does not have any non-privileged information that would be relevant to Plaintiff's claims. Accordingly, CoreLogic objects on the basis of privileged and will not produce Mr. Pantis for deposition.

It is clear that Plaintiff is going on a fishing expedition. Despite the fact that Plaintiff never previously disputed his consumer report with CoreLogic, Plaintiff has served first-party and third-party discovery that is harassing in volume and scope. Specifically, Plaintiff served subpoenas on three Better Business Bureau entities, three state attorneys general, and the federal Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, seeking records reflecting unrelated complaints initiated against CoreLogic. Plaintiff further subpoenaed Brighton Sylvan Glen Estates and noticed the depositions of the persons most knowledgeable for the Michigan State Police, Michigan Department of Corrections, and Wayne County Clerk's Office, as well as CoreLogic's representative most qualified on 33 topics and 40 sub-topics. Plaintiff has already deposed CoreLogic's representative most qualified, Brighton Sylvan Glen Estate's person most knowledgeable, and three CoreLogic employees: Robert Winkler, Angie Barnard, and Manny Cuevas. Considering the modest needs of the case, Plaintiff's continued deposition notices are disproportional at best and harassment at worst.

In addition to seeking irrelevant information, Plaintiff need not depose these individuals because Plaintiff has already conceded that he has no damages in this case. In his deposition, Plaintiff admitted that he was approved to live in Brighton Sylvan Glen Estates three days after he submitted his application. Clearly Dep. 78:19-23, ("Q: And after you – so just so I understand, so three days after you applied first to move to the Brighton Sylvan Glen Estates, you were approved to live in the community, is that right? A: Correct."). He moved in on the same date he had originally intended. Id. at 64:8-10 ("Q: There wasn't any plan to move prior to May when you were there filling out the application, correct? A: Correct."). Plaintiff cannot recover under any theory for CoreLogic's accurate reporting of public record information with which Plaintiff was intimately familiar, by his own admission, at the time of his application with Brighton.

Throughout discovery, Plaintiff has harassed CoreLogic with irrelevant and overbroad requests, unnecessary motions to compel, and threats of frivolous depositions. Plaintiff admitted in his deposition that he has no damages. The cost and burden of discovery requested by Plaintiff has far outweighed any benefit for the parties. CoreLogic therefore asserts these objections and further requests that Plaintiff withdraw his Notice of Deposition as to Yianni Pantis. If Plaintiff refuses, CoreLogic plans to pursue a motion for a protective order with the Court.

As has already been communicated to Plaintiff's counsel, CoreLogic will produce Naeem Kayani for deposition on March 29, 2019 at the noticed time and place. CoreLogic will additionally produce Idrees Muhammad for deposition on April 5, 2019 at a mutually agreeable time and location.

I'm completely tied up until at least Wednesday. However, I'm not sure what more there is to discuss after our last meet and confer by telephone, and then we provided our written objections. Yianni Pantis is in-house counsel and acts solely in his legal capacity. Thus, any guidance he provided the business is covered by the work-product doctrine and the attorney-client privilege. CoreLogic Rental Property Solutions maintains its objections on that basis.

R A N D Y W I L L I A M C L E A R Y

having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

E X A M I N A T I O N

BY MR. KOPP:

Q Good morning, Mr. Cleary.

A Good morning.

Q As I said earlier, my name is Jeff Kopp. I represent CoreLogic Rental Property Solutions in this lawsuit and
I'm going to be asking you some questions here today.

A Okay.

Q Before we do that, I guess I'll start by making sure that you understand that you're under oath, do you understand that?

A Yes, I do.

Q Okay. By being under oath, you're swearing that the answers that you give here today are true and correct, do you understand that?

A Yes.

Q And if at any time you don't understand one of my questions, will you let me know that?

1 A Diesel mechanic.
2 Q Where is Northstar Ranch located?
3 A Howell, Michigan.
4 Q And why did your employment with Northstar Ranch end?
5 A Shoulder injuries.
6 Q Are you currently on disability?
7 A I'm -- I've had two surge -- no.
8 Q What do you do for income?
9 A Right now, my special needs son gets SSI, that's it.
10 Q Does he live with you?
11 A Yes.
12 Q And how old is your son?
13 A Thirteen.
14 Q Have you ever had any criminal convictions?
15 A No.
16 Q I know that this case is about --
17 MR. KOPP: And I'm not going to mark the notice of 18 deposition.
19 MS. BOLOS: Okay.
20 BY MR. KOPP:
21 Q The case is about identity theft, is that correct?
22 A Yes.
23 Q When did you first have any issues with identity theft?
24 A 1988.
25 Q And how did it come about that -- what happened?

RANDY CLEARY vs CORELOGIC RENTAL PROPERTY SOLUTIONS
CLEARY, RANDY 01/30/2019

Job 8435
13

1 A I was arrested.

2 Q Where were you arrested?

3 A Northville.

4 Q And how were you arrested, during a traffic citation, or 5 what happened?

6 A I don't remember how it actually came about.

7 Q Did the police come to your house and get you?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And what happened?

10 A I had made a complaint on a friend of mine for stealing
11 my tools and then the next thing I know, they're at my 12 door.

13 Q So then what did the police tell you at that time?

14 A I was arrested for escaping prison.

15 Q How did you react to that?

16 A What do you mean on how I reacted?

17 Q Did you tell the policeman, "I never escaped from 18 prison, what are you talking about?"

19 A Yeah, I told him it was not me and got an attorney.

20 Q Did they take you downtown and book you, put you in 21 jail, what happened? I'm trying to understand this.

22 A They locked me up. The next day, administration from 23 Jackson Prison came, picked me up to take me back to 24 Jackson, until they got a call saying you got the wrong
25 guy.

1 Q And you told an attorney or somebody who was appointed
2 for you that this wasn't you?

3 A My mom's late husband had gotten me the attorney. I
4 don't even remember his name.

5 Q And so how long were you at Jackson State Prison?

6 A I never made it back to -- they never made it back to 7 Jackson.

8 Q Okay. So you were en route to Jackson when this --

9 A When they got the call to bring me back to release me.

10 Q And you drove back then to Northville?

11 A Right.

12 Q Okay. And where were you living at the time?

13 A In Northville.

14 Q What was the address there, if you can recall?

15 A I don't recall.

16 Q And so at that point, what else did you do at that point
17 after -- when you were released, I guess, from the 18 Northville Police Department?

19 A It's so many years ago, I don't recall.

20 Q Do you remember talking to a parole offer named Larry 21 Mytinger?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Who was Larry Mytinger?

24 A He was actually the guy using my name's parole officer.

25 Q And how did you come to know of Larry Mytinger?

1 Q And was Anita there when you first applied, filled out
2 an application to move to Brighton?

3 A Yes.

4 (Exhibit 4 was marked for identification.)

5 BY MR. KOPP:

6 Q I've handed you, Mr. Cleary, a document that's called
7 Application Requirements - For Each Applicant, the title
8 that you see on Exhibit 4 underneath the address, do you
9 see that?

10 A Yes.

11 MR. KOPP: Let's mark this one too.

12 (Exhibit 5 was marked for identification.)

13 BY MR. KOPP:

14 Q And I handed you also a document that I've marked as 15 Exhibit Number 5 and that says "Request for Verification
16 of Employment," do you see that?

17 A Yes.

18 Q So on April 18th, 2016, that's the date that I
19 believe -- if you turn to the second to last page of 20 Exhibit 4 and last page of Exhibit 4, you'll see there's 21 a signature and a date there and it says 4/18/16, do you
22 see that?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Do you believe that you filled out the application for 25 Brighton Sylvan Glen Estates on April 18, 2016?

1 A Yes.

2 Q And at that point, you had already negotiated for the 3 trailer purchase with Mr. Neil, or Neil?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And what was your expected move-in date, was it sometime
6 in May after you transitioned from Kensington over?

7 A Yes.

8 Q There wasn't any plan to move prior to May when you were 9 there filling out the application, correct?

10 A Correct.

11 Q And when you -- is this your handwriting on the third
12 page, the third, fourth, and fifth page of the 13 application?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Now, when you completed the application, and I'm looking 16 specifically at the third page, the question is, "Have 17 you had another legal name?" and you checked yes and you
18 listed Reetz, two Es, and then Reitz, R-e-i-t-z, do you
19 see that?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And you listed your birthday, your social security
22 number, and your current address where you were living,
23 correct?

24 A Correct.

25 Q Okay. And then if you turn to the next page, right

1 above your signature, there's a paragraph that has an
2 authorization, do you see that?

3 A Yes.

4 Q And it says, quote, "I/We authorize First Holding 5 Management Company and its affiliates to obtain my/our 6 credit report, employment, court records and other
7 information necessary to live in one of their 8 communities. A photocopy of the application may be used
9 to obtain this information. Any false information in 10 the application may lead to rejection of this
11 application or the termination of lease," and then you
12 signed right below that authorization, correct?

13 A Correct.

14 Q And so you listed names that you had used before,
15 correct?

16 A Correct.

17 Q And you authorized First Holding Management Company to 18 conduct a background check on you, correct?

19 A Correct.

20 Q And did you believe at that point that they were going
21 to do a criminal background check on you?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And then in the Request for Verification of Employment,
24 you also signed that document and provided, I guess, a
25 copy of your W-2 and some kind of bill from --

1 MS. BOLOS: I think that's his pay stub.

2 BY MR. KOPP:

3 Q -- or pay stub, that's what I meant, I'm sorry, a pay
4 stub with your current address on it at that New Hudson
5 address, correct?

6 A Correct.

7 Q Okay. And so when you applied for the lot at Sylvan
8 Glen, Brighton Sylvan Glen on April 18th, is there some 9 reason why you didn't tell them that you were the victim
10 of identity theft?

11 A I did tell them I was a victim of identity theft.

12 Q Who did you tell that to?

13 A The park management.

14 Q To Anita?

15 A Anita and Lindsay.

16 Q And what did they say?

17 A That there was nothing they could do until they did the 18 background check to see what came back.

19 Q Did you provide Anita and Lindsay any documentation such 20 as the letter that you had, Exhibit 2, or the flash,
21 Exhibit 1, at that point?

22 MS. BOLOS: Objection, form.

23 A No, I did not.

24 BY MR. KOPP:

25 Q Why not?

1 A I produced them with information when they came back and
2 said there was an issue of my lawsuit papers against the 3 State of Michigan and --

4 Q I'll show you those documents after, but --

5 A -- Exhibit Number 3.

6 Q I guess my question, though, is if you knew there was 7 going to be an issue, why didn't you give them those 8 documents when they first -- when you first knew that 9 there was going to be an issue, why didn't you just 10 produce those documents up front and say --

11 MS. BOLOS: Objection.

12 BY MR. KOPP:

13 Q -- "Hey, there's going to be an issue, I know about 14 this"?

15 MS. BOLOS: Objection, form, foundation.

16 A I didn't know there would be an issue.

17 BY MR. KOPP:

18 Q Okay. Let's just hit rewind, okay? When you went in,
19 you knew they were going to do a background check?

20 A Correct.

21 Q And you knew that there was going to be information that 22 came up on the background check --

23 MS. BOLOS: Objection.

24 BY MR. KOPP:

25 Q Didn't you testify to that earlier?

1 A I don't know what the informa -- I don't know what the
2 background check recalls, I don't know what is in their 3 systems.

4 Q Okay.

5 A So as far as I know, it should all have been cleared up.

6 Q Didn't you just tell me a second ago that you had a
7 conversation with Anita and Lindsay --

8 A I said there may be an issue.

9 MS. BOLOS: We can read it back so we're all
10 clear --

11 MR. KOPP: I know what he said.

12 MS. BOLOS: -- because I thought he said ID theft,
13 I don't think he said there would be something on his 14 background check.

15 BY MR. KOPP:

16 Q All right. I'm not trying to confuse you, I just want 17 to understand this, okay? So let's take it from the 18 top.

19 You went in, you filled out the application on 20 April 18th, correct?

21 A Correct.

22 Q You knew that they were going to be doing a criminal
23 background check on you?

24 A Correct.

25 Q You did not tell Lindsay or Anita that you had any

1 concerns that there would be an issue with the
2 background check, is that right or wrong?

3 A I said there was an identity issue.

4 Q And did they ask -- and what else did you say about that
5 or do you recall saying?

6 A I don't recall, just that there was an identity issue,
7 I've had an identity issue.

8 Q And do you recall what they said when you told them that
9 there might be an identity theft issue?

10 A I don't recall exactly what they said, no.

11 Q And you didn't think to provide them any written
12 documents that might help explain away identity theft
13 issues that could come back on the criminal background
14 check at that time?

15 MS. BOLOS: Objection, form.

16 A I don't know what was on the criminal background check.

17 BY MR. KOPP:

18 Q You just said that there might be some issues of 19 identity theft, did I not hear that right?

20 A I also said that there was -- also, it should have been
21 cleared up in the previous lawsuit.

22 Q Okay.

23 A As far as I knew, it was.

24 Q Okay. So you weren't sure what would come back from 25 the --

1 A Right.

2 Q -- background check. There might be some identity theft
3 issue, that's why you said that to Lindsay and Anita?

4 A Exactly.

5 Q But all you did was say that you didn't see fit to give
6 them any documentation at that time?

7 MS. BOLOS: Asked and answered. Can we move on?

8 MR. KOPP: No, I want --

9 MS. BOLOS: Don't harass him over it.

10 MR. KOPP: I want to get a clean record here and I
11 don't believe that I have.

12 A This is just sounding like harassment.

13 BY MR. KOPP:

14 Q I'm not trying to harass you. I'm trying to understand.

15 A But I've already answered your question.

16 Q I want a clean record and then we'll move on.

17 At the time that you applied, you did not see a
18 need to give Lindsay or Anita any written documentation
19 that would have substantiated any identity theft issues
20 that might have arisen as a result -- as a result of the 21 criminal background check that was being performed on 22 you, is that correct?

23 MS. BOLOS: Objection, form.

24 A Correct.

25 BY MR. KOPP:

1 MS. BOLOS: Objection, form.

2 A I didn't think anything would come back, everything, as 3 far as I knew, was taken care of.

4 BY MR. KOPP:

5 Q Okay. And so other than the time it took you to go and 6 collect the information that you provided to 7 Ms. Ireland, has your criminal background been an issue
8 for you since you moved into Brighton Sylvan Glen 9 Estates?

10 MS. BOLOS: Objection, form.

11 BY MR. KOPP:

12 Q Do you understand the question?

13 A Not really.

14 Q Has anyone at Brighton Sylvan Glen raised any criminal 15 convictions with you or that are on your record, has 16 that been an issue in any way since you've moved into 17 Brighton Sylvan Glen Estates?

18 A No.

19 Q And after you -- so just so I understand, so three days
20 after you applied first to move to the Brighton Sylvan 21 Glen Estates, you were approved to live in the 22 community, is that right?

23 A Correct.

24 Q And when did you move in? Sometime in May, you don't 25 know when?
